

Liberated Syndication Named to “Best of” Lists

Named to Best Podcast Hosting Providers of 2021 List by Techradar

Named as Best Podcast Publisher by Quill Podcast Awards 2021

Pittsburgh, PA – June 28, 2021 - Liberated Syndication Inc. (OTCQB:LSYN) (“Libsyn” or “the Company”), the industry’s leading podcast hosting platform, today announced that the Company was recognized as a podcast industry leader by two “Best of” lists compiled by tech industry publications. Libsyn was named to Techradar’s Best Podcast Hosting Providers of 2021 list, which can be found here Best Podcast Hosting Providers of 2021. Libsyn was also noted as the Best Podcast Publisher as part of the Quill Podcast Awards of 2021, which can be accessed via Quill Podcast Awards 2021.

Techradar evaluated hosting providers on a number of criteria, including content uploading and rss feed generation/dissemination, specified as “essential” functions, along with “add-on” elements including tools and other conveniences. According to Techradar, Libsyn’s unlimited bandwidth, monetization add-ons, and mobile app were key, positive elements of the Company’s offering. The Quill Awards include a range of awards for both podcasters and podcast service providers. Awards are judged by notable podcast industry entities such as Simplecast, Podchaser, and Heil Sound, among others.

“We are constantly working to make sure our platform at Libsyn offers users the best podcast hosting experience possible. Recognition by independent entities such as Techradar and Quill validates our belief that we are building the best user experience possible,” said Libsyn President and Chief Operating Officer, Laurie Sims. “In particular, we were very pleased to see Techradar note that the Libsyn is ‘a wonderful option for those who are just breaking into podcasting’. We have recently added features with the novice podcaster in mind, so we are certainly gratified to get this feedback.”
